On

26th April 2022

Talk on: Intellectual Property and Youth innovating for a Better Future

The Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) of Sadiya College has organized a “Virtual Celebration of World Intellectual Property Day on 26th April, 2022” focusing on its current year theme Intellectual Property and Youth innovating for a Better Future synchronizing with the national yearlong programme Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav. Prof. Pritam Deb, Chair Professor, IPR Cell, Tezpur University and Ms. Anjali Menon, Co-founder & Director, IPRGENIE LLP, New Delhi. The programme started with the welcome address by Mr. Buddhi Kanta Misra, Co-ordinator, IQAC, Sadiya College. The technical session begins with inaugural speech from Dr. Bhupen Chutia, The Principal, Sadiya College.

Prof. Pritam Deb delivers his keynote address signifying the worldwide celebration of Intellectual Property (IP) Day. In his lecture several important and vital aspects of IP has been uttered. The responsibility of higher educational institutions to aware the society about the IP right and how it has been entangled in research is reflected in his note. Prof. Deb further appreciates Sadiya College and encourages other institutions for organizing such intellectual programme for the better benefit of the society.

Ms. Anjali Menon, a Registered Patent Agent (INPA-2696) and Empanelled IP Facilitator for Gujarat Technological University (GTU) grace the programme as the resource person. Ms. Menon very distinctively shares among the participants the theme of the 2022 World IP Day celebration respecting and encouraging the young innovators who are regarded as the change makers. She cited many examples of innovation by the young school students. Amongst them insect killing dustbin, modified dust cleaning broom, solar ironing cart draws attention of the participants. Ms. Menon detailed about IP right and its type. Her session is of much worth to learn about the patentable and non-patentable stuffs. She also discusses about the trademark, patent, copyright issues, importance and financial benefit. Her session was enlightened with the information and background of geographical indication (GI) tag. Further she concluded her
